

Published every Saturday at 1109 I street northwest, Washington, D. C.

Entered at the Postoffice at Washington D. . as second-class mail matter. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. One nch, one year

We disclaim my responsibility for stat ments expressed by our correspondent neither do we indorse all they say. Correspondence on living topics is solicite

Special notices 50 cents each. Ten lines con titute an inch.

but to have attention must be brief. Communications for publication mu he accompanied with the writer's nam Net necessarily for publication but as guarantee of good faith.

W. CALVIN CHASE, EDITOR.

Subscribers are requested to pay

If you want a live paper read the BEE.

We want 10,000 subscribers by eu middle of next year.

The Recorder of Deeds business will be settled next week.

R bt. Johnson have the respect and confidence of the citizens.

Now that the committees are appointed it is hoped that all parties are satisfied.

Prof. F. L. Cardoz 's paper or "Industrial education" was a mas terpiece of composition.

The attention of the readers of the Bee is called to the advertisement of the High School concert.

Thursday and Friday evenings March 3rd and 4th, the Philomathian will give a grand carnival and it is hoped that the citizens and friends of the society will turn out in force.

Our Journalistic and genia friend Magnus L. Robinson and consort of Alexandria, Va., bave our beartfull sympathy in their recent bereavement the death of their infant boy the name sake of Ex-Alderman John Audrew Seaton of New York.

$50 FINE.

The equal rights of man have been questioned in the state of Penn sylvania and the House has passed a bill imposing the small fine of $50, on any person who discriminates against another on account of color, this is a move in the right direction but it does not go far enough.

INGALLS PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

who wants them. We respectfully appetite. request you Senator to read our open letter to you, which will be found on the first page of this week's Bee. Until you hear from us again, we wish you great success as president of the Senate.

OUR SCHOOLS.

We would suggest to Dr. Fran cis, Prof. Gregory and Mr. Johnson, to increase the number of admissions from our High to the Norenter the Normal school simply because the number required by law prevents her. She cannot go forward to go back, but is compelled to leave school without any hope of future reward. The number of admissions to the Normal school that our colored trustees will consider this suggestion and remedy the evil as soon as possible.

NO COLORED LAWYERS.

was certainly "off the track" at colored people, as leaders, a few Wilmington, Del., when he made fossilized and played out party Post, the statement that "twenty-five tracks, who have no influence years ago there were no colored with the colored people, but are lawyers in this country." If the always ready to hold office; it so, Prof will take the trouble of they are mistaken for the colored searching the records of 1844 at people will have none of them, Portland, Me., of the June term | not even for a gift. he will find the name of Macon B. Allen appearing on the record of said court as admitted to the bar. Boston, June 1850, these gentlemen being full fledged law yers; Mr. Morris is now deceased Mr. Allen was still living in 1883. -St. Joseph Radical.

doing well as attorney for the and hear it. It is a paper that Land and Improvement Association of this city. A flourishing land will show just what we all institution and one that bids tair can do if we will. to be a success.

A MINISTERIAL BEAT.

by himself and wife. The recep- Indian reserve. tion was a success and as soon as warned to look out for him. His the nation. has been taken. We are of the opinion that the Bishops will take this ministerial beat in hand.

A CONVERTS FIRST LIE.

Pandemonium was let loose at the Philomathian, Thursday night. Of course our contemporary will give a full account of the lies freely passed, the fists shaken, the half a dozen or more on the floor at the same time and the general confusion ensuing .- The "Advo-

We had come to the conclusion that Mr. John W. Cromwell of the steamboat and resevoir notoriety had shaken from his clothing the sinful dust of this world and given his feet a rest in the class room where his sisters congregate to give thanks, that this printers devil would be able to tell the truth. We have always been taught that when a change from sin is made we see new light, the jealousy would appear small in our eye. But, now it is come to light that some people are converted by the devil and hide behind a christians cloak to enable them to be greater scoundrels. The Philomathian Society is a monument in the eyes of the editor of the "Advocate" and all others like caucus. We congratulate you, Mr. readily account for the jealousy it Ingalls and hope that your ambi- has towards the Philomathian. The tion will lead you to become the Philomathian is the peoples' literarepublican candidate for president ry untainted by corruption and in 88. And since you have no de- black-guardism. It is not consire to seek the vote of free born | trolled by ministerial influence or negroes, they must in the course of female satellites upon which the human events find some other man president can satisfy a lustful

FREEDOM VS. SLAVERY.

eracy. The original leaders of ate a large number of the best and their training will show their should, at least, be 35 which would the grand old party bent their most influential class of Negr es enable a greater number to receive energies and labored incessantly have come to the conclusion that

POWER OF COMBINATION.

Col. Milton M. Holland, of this city will read a paper before the Philomathian Literary Society Thursday evening March 10th on the Power of Combination. This is a great paper and it is hoped that Lawyer Allen is still alive and all classes of citizens will turn out everybody should hear. Col. Hol-

FICTITIOUS CAPITALIZA-TION.

Hon. D. M. Sabin, of Minnesota, de There is a pastor on 6th st., near | livered a speech in the senate Fri-L who is well known in this city day February 18, on fictitious cap as a beat. He goes to printing offi italization on watering stock in ces and gets work done with the railway construction. Mr. Sabin understanding that he will pay af- said, that he was instructed by the ter his entertainments. He called committee on Indian affairs, to auat this office some time ago and thorize the Stillwater and Coake got several hundred invitations City Railway Co., to construct and printed for a reception to be given operate a railway through the crow

The previous policy of the Gov-Make the 25th at nivers my a the bill was presented to the ernment in matters of this kind amount of $7.35 he informed the would be satisfied by such restricoffice to sue him for the money and | tions as are calculated to protect returned the paper for which he the Indian from any undue en subscribe and with the corners croachment upon his rights; but burnt. This is the same rascal who in my judgement, said he, the time made a false charge against Rev. has arrived when Congress should Mr. C. F. Mosby and Rev. Dyson. The sooner the public have a care not only for the Indian knows him the better it will be to but the white man, whose property the community. All offices are is and must be of equal concern to great hoby is the co-operative ca- This is the right step in the right pacity of the negro. We are pleas- direction and it is hoped that the ed to know, however that the ca Senator may see the importance of paper by Prof. F. L. Cardoza pacity of all negroes is not to beat giving equal protection to the netheir fellow man out of a just debt. gro if there be any on the reserva We have informed the members of tion. We suppose he means the his church, but as yet no action black, if any, as well as the

OUR EMANCIPATION

The meeting of the colored citizens that was held at the Capital City Guard Armory, last week was one that will be long remem bered. The convention consisted of 19 districts and upwards of 50 organizations The delegates met in perfect harmony and while there was apparently two factions great enthusiasm was manifested Everything was harmonious and all seemed to be satisfied at the result. Mr. C. F. Mosby one of which you have doubtless heard the brightest y ung men in West a great deal of late. Judge be three services during the day. Washington was elected chairman | McArthur has lectured on the sub and by his judicious and fair rul | ject at All Souls' church recently, ing managed to give all satisfac- and Dr. Crummell has preached tion. Rev. Robert Johnson w.s a most excelle t sermon on it, by his choir at 3 o'clock and Rev. elected chief marshal, and while which has been printed and which Mr. Carson in his speech endeav- I would advise all to read especiored to defeat him, he said after ally parents. Its importance jushis election that he would do all tifies its constant consideration. things or objects that once caused in his power to make the celebra- It cannot be treated to much. Its tion a success. Mr. C. H. Mar- neglect necessitates the repetition shall, the recognized representation of the grounds upon which it is tive of South Washington deserves based. What is Industrial E uspecial ment on for his support of cation? Perhaps I should ask Rev Johnson and the gentleman- first, what is education? For the bow drill of twenty young ladies ly manner he conducted himself answer to this second question in the convention. The colored will influence the answer to the citizens may feel highly congratu- first. Perhaps it may have caus Mr. John J. Ingalls of Kansas has him. Since the Bethel Literary lated upon the selection of two ed you to smile at the question been elected president protempore has nothing but empty benches to gentlemen of worth who will what is education? You may of the Senate by the republican create a pandemonium we can make the 25th a niversary of the think the question is so natural emancipation of slaves in the Dis- and patent that it needs no definitrict of Columbia, a success. Elsewhere will be found he several of education. There are two very committees and it is hoped that that the people will go to work and give the committees their aid have considered the subject of edand individual support.

TALK ON MANY TOPICS

Editor Chase, of the "Bee."-

training. As it is now there are no the latter day republicans in their anxious to reward their services, apply their disciplined intellect inducements offered to our young medness to strike down a colored the Republicans expect to get to any new subject. Some pamen who may graduate from the man who has mind enough of them for nothing, and there are a rents are influenced precisely as High School. We sincerely hope his own to guide his political ac good many of them taking quar some teachers and many parents tion have reversed this order, and ters in the Democratic camp in make additional mistakes, on have placed a premium upon consequence The Republican account of their natural relations slavery as against freedom. Just Senators, in refusing to confirm ship. And I may add, in addition what they expect to gain by this Mat hews, have lost halt their to these reasons that are applicamove is not apparent, unless it be strength among the negroes. ble to all parents, there are some Prof. H. J. Brown of Baltimore their intention to force upon the You can count me as a Cleveland that influence us especially as man now every time." -- Sunday above. The very conception that > any party or class of men that but the lowest in the scale * * * will best serve his interests. We admire the course of Mr. Cleveland and believe that he is honest, And if the democratic party had the same magnanimity for the colored people as Mr. Cleveland, we have no fear of future results. If the demi cratic party does any thing commendable we shall give it credit, we shall do likewise towards the republican party. We are sworn to no party or set of men, but for that party and such men that know no prejudice, but will extend justice to all. We are for Cleveland, if he will extend to the colored man the same recognition that he eccords the white min. It Cleveland cannot do that and such a man is in the republican party, he is our man.

THE PHILOMATHIAN

PROF. CARDOZO ON INDUSTRIAL EDU-CATION. SOUND ADVICE TO PA-RENTS.

An appreciative audience as sempled Toursday evening at the regular meeting of the Philoma thian Literary society of the Second Baptist church to listen to a principal of the Public High school. The popularity of the profess r brought out a goodly number and the manner the subject was handled made the evening entertaining. The directress Mrs. Siye had a very g od musical program consisting of solos and duetts. The solo by Miss Handy was rende ed with effect. The lady has a clear voice, full music. The duette by Miss Handy and Mrs. Brooks, was received with applause. The minhaving been read, the president, Mr. Chase, introduced the Es-ayist who read a paper on

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

tion, that has a correct conception pronounced and directly opposite theories held by thinke's who uc ion philosophically.

The one theory is that education is the imputing of knowledge; the other is that education is the developement of the human faculties. Now it is singu-The free born Negro after read- "The Republican party doesn't re- lar and yet natural to observe how ing the pronuncimento of Senator alize it yet, but the action of the the one or the other of these the-Ingalls, wherein he plainly sets Senare in refusing to confirm ories influences teachers in their forth the decrine that a free born James Campbell Matthews as Re- tuition of their pupils, when per-Negro has no claim to recognition corder of Deeds has alienated the haps they may have never heard from the republican party has but negro from their ranks. I don't of their philosophical analysis. one course to pursue, and that is, mean to say that there will be no Some teachers teach as if their to hit back through the ballot more negroes who will vote the whole duty was to hear the pupil box. The time has now come for Republican ticket, but that at the ricite the facts, and the facts mal school. It is hard after a the Negro to be a man or vassal, next national election there will alone; while others look beyond young lady has graduated from the The spectacle of the republican be just as many who will vote for the se facts and see that the re-High school she is not allowed to m jority in the United States Cleveland as for the Republican son of the pupil is exercised in Senate placing themselves on rec- candidate, whoever he may be. understanding the facts. The ord as drawing the line in favor The Republican party h s repud - latter class of teachers are infinof slavery as against freedom at sted us, and it has become more itely superior to the former, and this day and time is a most re- of a race question than a political the pupils who are fortunate markable case of political degen- one. Since the action of the Sen- enough to receive the benefit of the benefits of a Normal school in the interest of freedom; but while the Democratic party are whenever they are called upon to your face back into a smile.

SUPERIORITY

a parent has a education will Our esteemed contemporary, influence his action with regard to the Sunday Post, is a little in er- his child. If the parent thinks ror as to what appeared in the that education is simply impartcolumn on "Talk on many topics" | ing knowledge, only the acquisilast Sundy. We never said that I tion of facts and his child makes "You can count me as a Cleveland | great progress in this direction, man now every time." While he will be delighted and think his we believe in the independence of child a genius, whereas it will be the colored man, we are of the simply an exhibition of good opinion that he should support memory, an important faculty,

MORE MECHANICS,

more farmers, and more business men; these are the three classes especially that employ the doctors, and lawyers, and make it profiable to persue the profe-sions. He concluded by saying that there is nothing great on earth but man. There is nothing great in man but mind.

As colored peopl , we are poor, we have to climb in the same way other races have climbed. We have to acquire wealth, and then learning.

Mr. J. P. Waddleton asked the Prof, if he believed in the theory of hereditary, if so how are we to determine for what particular field a boy or girl is fitted in life?

Prof. Cardozo in reply said that to an extent he believed the hereditary theory and went on to give some illustrations.

Prof. Johnson, Messrs. Batts, Maxfield and others discussed the Next Thursday evening, the Literary Carnival will take place and continue Friday night. This entertainment should not be miss ed. It will be one of the best that has ever been in the city.

WEST WASHINGTON.

James L. Turner, Agent and Reporter. 1417 West 28 Street.

Mabel, the 15 months old baby of Capt. Wm. Neal died on Wednesday morning and was buried on Friday evening from her pa rents' residence, 2609 O st. Kev. Father Reckford officiated. Interment at Holy Road cemetery.

A grand pr ze entertainment utes of the Sec. etary, Miss Mason, will be given Wednesday evening next by the general comm ttee on conference claims for Mr. Z:on M. E. church.

A grand rally at Mr. Zion to-He said: This is a subject up in morrow by the general committee on conference collection There will Rev. R. A. Read 'of Asbury will preach at 11 o'clock, Rev. D. W. Draper of Ebenezer, accompanied P. Ryder P. E. at 71 o'clock. All are invited. Rev. D. Collins,

> A very successful en ertainment was given on Tuesday evening last at Mt. Zion M. E. church by the "Willing and Earnest Workers' association. An interesting feature of the evening was a Rain by Mess M. L. Beason. Mr. T. Ingraham presided at the organ and enlivened the occasion.

The entertainment to have been even by the young ladies of the Eb nezer A M. E. church on the 22 and 23 was unavoidably postponed on account of revival meetings which are being held nightly at the church

A DISSATISFIED CONGREGATION.

It is understood that it is not the intention of the coming conference to return the present pastor to Mount Zion M. E. church, Georgetown, for the ensuing year. His pastora e has not proved a success, and this usually flourishing perish has not only failed to progress but has retrograded. Members have tallen off and the collections have not realized the expectations of the officers of the church The importance of placing an able, talented preacher and one fully up with the times in charge of the church is fully rec-

It is amusing to see people with their faces down as if they had swallowed a feather and it was tickling their lungs and they would be happy if they could only sneeze. Now there no use of "making faces" A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will draw from good type upon good paper. read variety of subjects, and we think a great variety of subjects, and we thin the list without finding therein many ille to possess. In stoth-bound form these forces want of 1.00 each. Each book is complete in itself. I. The Widow Bedott Papers. This is the box over which your grandmethers laughed this they stied say it is just as funny to-day as it ever was. 2. Winter Evening Recreations, a large of Acting Charades, Tablesuzz, Games, Puzzles, etc. cial gatherings, private theatricals, and evenings at home.

3. Back to the Old Home. A Nave. By Mary Cecil Hay, author of "Hidden Perils." Cecil Har, author of "Hidden Perna.

4. Dialogues, Recitations and Readings, a large thicker collection for school exhibitions and public and p 5. The Standard Letter Writer for Ladier and to tiemen, a complete guide to correspondence civing directions for the composition of letters of every sind 6. The Frozen Deep. A Novel. By White Collins after of "The Woman in White," etc. 7. Red Court Farm. A Novel. By Mrs. Beary Wood, author of "East Lyane," etc.

8. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir Water South - The works of Scott, none is more beautiful than this.

2. In Cupid's Net. A Novel. By the author of Dora Thorne."

10. Amos Barten. A Novel. By George Ellet and the of "Adam Bede," "The Mill on the Flore etc.

11. Lady Gwendoline's Dream. A Novel. By the author of "Dora Thorne."

12. The Mystery of the Holly Tree. A Novel. By the author of "Dora Thorne."

13. The Budget of Wit. Humor and Fun, a large collection of the funny stories, aketches, anecdotes trees. and jokes.

14. John Bowerbank's Wife. A Novel By Min.

Mulock, author of "John Halifax, Gentleman, etc. 15. The Gray Woman, A Nuvel, By Mrs. Gartell author of "Mary Barton," etc. suther of "Mary Barton," etc.

16. Sixteen Complete Stories by Popular Authors, embracing love, humarous and detective stories, stories of society life, of adventure, of railway life, etc., all very in-17. Jasper Dane's Secret. A Novel. By Miss M Braddon, author of "Aurora Floyd," etc.
18. Fancy Work for Home Adorament, an entirely new work upon this subject, containing east and practical instructions for making fancy baskets, wall process brackets needle work, embroidery, etc., etc., profusely and elegantly 19. Grimm's Fairy Stories for the Young. The fluest collection of fairy stories published. The windred are delighted with them. 20. Manual of Etiquette for Ladies and Gentlemen a guide to politeness and good breeding giving the roles of modern etiquette for all occasions. 21. Useful Knowledge for the Million, a hands book of useful information for all, upon many and various 22. The Home Cook Book and Family Physiefam, containing hundreds of excellent coosing recipes and hints to housekeepers, also telling how to cure all common aliments by simple home remedies.

23. Manners and Customs in Far Away Landa, a very interesting and instructive book of travels discribin the peculiar life, habits, manners and customs of the people of foreign countries.

24. 87 Popular Ballada. Same size as sheet music.
Words of all the old and new songs.

25. Called Back. A Novel. By Bugh Conway.

26. At the World's Mercy. A Novel. By Forence. Warden, suther of The House on the Marsh, etc.
27. Mildred Trevanion. A Novel. By the Buches, author of Molly Bawn, etc.
28. Dark Days. A Novel. By the author of Gallet 29. Shadows on the Snow. A Novel, By B L Far-jeon, author of "Bread-and-Cheese-and-Klesses are 30. Leoline. A Novel. By Mary Com Hay author of 31. Gabriel's Marriage. A Novel By Wilkie Calling, 32. Reaping the Whirlwind. A Norel, By Mary Cecil Hay, author of "Old Middleton a Money on 33. Dudley Carleon. A Novel. By Mos M. E. Braddon, author of "Lady Audley's Secret. 202.

34. A Golden Dawn. A Novel. By the author of

"Dors Thorne," etc.
36. Valerie's Fate. A Novel. By Mr. 37. Anne. A Novel. By Mrs. Henry Wood, author of Rast Lynne.
38. The Laurel Bush. A Novel. By Miss Mulock. uthor of "John Halifar, Gentleman," etc.

19. Robinson Crusoe. A thrilling parrative by Daniel De Foe, describing the adventures of a castaway in the South 40. How to Make Poultry Pay. A practical and 41. Parlor Magie and Chemical Experiments,

Moore, Bryant, and many others,
43. Building Plans for Practical, Low-cost
Houses. A full description and plans of Eight modern houses, ranging in price from $600 to $4500. Hight moders 44. Aneedotes of Public Men. Washington, Frank
lin. Webster, Clay, Tilden, Lincoln, Scott, Conference, C

OUR UNEQUALED OFFER

$1.50. Address all orders to publishers of "THE WASHINGTON BEE," Washington, D

We have arranged with the publishers of these books to furnish the whole forty-

The Cosmopolitan

The handsomest, most entertaining, low price, flustrated family magazine in the world. ($2.50 per year, with a $2.25 premium free.) Sixty-four beautifully printed pages in each number, filled with short stories, sketches, and literary articles, by distinguished American and foreign writers, such as Julian Hawthorne, Harriet Prescott Spofford, George Parsons Lathrop, Louise Chandler Moulton, J. Mac-Boyesen, Catherine Owen, Rev. R. Heber Newton, Alphonse Daudet, Paul Heyse, Count Tolstoi, Th. Dostoivsky, William Westall and and invaluable HOUSEHOLD departments perfect device ever inventally and according to date) all letters, bills, etc. Any paper can be referred to, taken out and put back With the Binde Get SAMPLE COPY at NEWS STAND of

AGENTS WANTED. BIG COMMISSIONS PAID. Schlicht & Field Co., Rochester, N.Y.

POST-OFFICE

A NEW BOOK JUST PUBLISHED by an official over 15 years' experience in the Secret Service, in one Magnificent Royal Octavo Volume of over 600 pages and elegantly illustrated by the best artists in the country with

200 SUPERB ENGRAVINGS. A thrilling record of detection in the U.S. P Office Department; embracing sketches of Wonderful Exploits of Post-Office Inspectors in the Detection, Pursuit, and Capture of Robbers of the U.S. Mails; together with a complete description of the many means and complicated contrivances of the wily and unscrupulous to defraud the public; also an accurate account of the FAMOUS STAR ROUTE FRAUDS, in which the Author had entire charge of the pre-paration of the evidence for the government. FACENTS WANTED. In every town there are Postmasters, Merchants

In every town there are Postmasters, Merchants, Mechanics, Farmers, Professional Men, and hundreds of people who will be glad to get this thrilling book. It is now having an unparalled sale; it sells at sight to all. Men and Women Agents making from $100 to $300 a mouth easily. We want an agent in every township in the U. S. and Canada. We give instructions so that ANY PERSON with this phenomenal selling book, can become a successful Agent. No Competition whatever. Agents are meeting with unparalleled success. We Distance no hindrance, as we give Special Terms to pay Freights. Remember, we give you the exclusive sale of this book in territory assigned you. Write for our large Illustrated Circulars, containing full particulars. Special Terms to Agents, etc., sent free to all. Address immediately the Publishers, WINTER & CO., SPRINGFIELD, MASS. Formerly of Hartford, Conn. WANTED—LADY active and intelligent, to an old firm. References required. Permanent position and good salary. GAY & BROS., 12 Barelay St., M. Y.